

REJOICE

Dear guest:

Hotel Emporio is pleased to welcome you to Mexico City. We hope your stay is everything you expected and more. In this guide, you'll find detailed information on the hotel rules and guidelines, services our hotel offers, as well as other services you are likely to find useful during your stay in "The City of Palaces."

Hotel Emporio Mexico City is a gem of the hospitality sector with a central location on Paseo de la Reforma Avenue in the beating heart of the nation's largest financial district—just a short trip from the famous Historic Center. Striving to do better every day is part of our mission. That's why we ask that you leave all your comments and suggestions with us at the front desk at your earliest convenience. You will find us there 24 hours a day. Furthermore, a few days after check-out, we will follow-up with a brief e-mail survey. We are eager to hear all about your experience with us.

At Emporio Mexico City, service is our pleasure!

Welcome.
